Some places can be thought of as Safe Places even though we don’t know them very well or have never been to them before.
Cafes, schools and stores are examples of Safe Places.

Try to think of a few more good examples of Safe Places and draw pictures of them in the space below.